Puppets Give Back

Benefiting the children of the Little Light House

TULSA, OKLA. - The Green Country Puppeteers will be coming to the Little Light House on Monday, December 4th at 10 a.m. to perform their Christmas program for the students. They are ecstatic to showcase this new show to the children as they have something extra special from the puppets.

John Fisher told us “The puppets are especially excited about this particular visit because for the past year they have been saving their nickels, pennies and more!” The puppets will be presenting their donation to the students and their contribution will help with our future renovation!

The Green Country Puppeteers are made up of six members who volunteer their time to spread joy to children. This organization is a religious-focused group that travels around the Tulsa area providing shows complimentary to children ages pre-school to grade school.

“We truly love all that you do for the community and feel so blessed to be chosen to receive this token of your love,” Cheryl Miller, Director of Educational Services at Little Light House.

The Little Light House is a non-profit Christian developmental center for children with special needs. Our educational and therapeutic services are provided to families completely tuition-free. Contributions like these really do make a difference!
