Mary and Joseph were about to be wed When an angel came to Mary and said, “You will have a son. Jesus will be his name. He will save the world. Life will never be the same.”

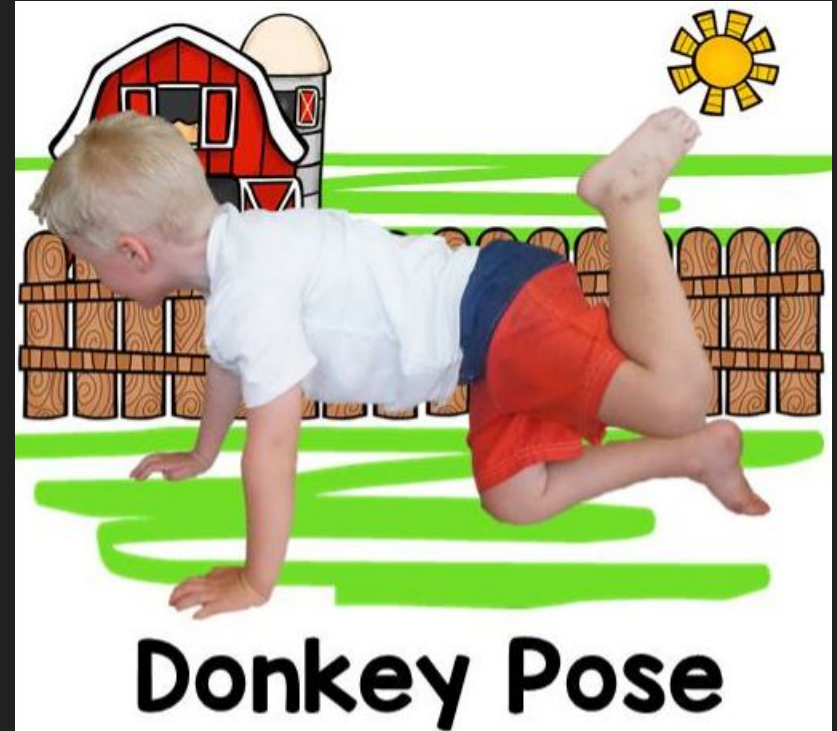

On Christmas, Baby Jesus came. O happy day! O precious name!

All people must be counted, each and every one. This was the law and it had to be done. Mary traveled the dusty road along the way to Bethlehem. Joseph walked beside her and God was with them.

The city was crowded. There was no place to stay Except for a stable filled with animals and hay. Baby Jesus was born on that holy night. He was God's perfect son--a glorious sight.

Out in the fields shepherds watched over their sheep. Tucked away in a manger, Baby Jesus was asleep. Out of the sky an angel appeared. “Good news to all men. You have nothing to fear.”
